

Pipestone Paranormal Weekend

October 12 & 13, 2018

Weekend Event Schedule

All events are ticketed separately. No weekend packages available. Contact the Pipestone County Museum [507-825-2563 or pipctymu@iw.net] to make reservations and purchase event tickets.

Saturday 11am- 5:00pm: Tin Type Photography Experience by D.C. Rambow, Historic Photographer

Have your portrait struck! Historian Dave Rambow, trained in the art of 19th century photography and working out of a portable darkroom, will be available all day for personal portraits in this historic medium.

Friday, October 12, 2018

9:00 pm: Bedtime Stories at the Calumet $25.00

Participants gather in the historic Calumet Inn's dining room to hear of paranormal encounters experienced by the hotel staff and to share their own! Snacks will be available to purchase. Afterwards, join the guides on a tour of the historic Inn. Bring your own ghost-apps to try out too! Meet the authors of "Wild West Ghosts" Kym O'Connell-Todd and Mark Todd at this event. [They will be speaking Saturday at 6:30]

This event is limited. Meet at the Calumet Inn.

Saturday, October 13, 2018

9:00 am Meet & Greet & Registration at the Museum

Free

Tour the Pipestone County Museum- featured in "The Minnesota Road Guide to Haunted Places" and visit with other paranormal enthusiasts over coffee and donuts.

Come and go as you please.

10:00 am Historic Cemetery Tour $10.00

A guided tour of Old Woodlawn Cemetery, featuring World War One soldiers.

Meet at Old Woodlawn Cemetery.

11-1pm On Your Own

Have your portrait "struck!" sign up for a historic photograph with D.C. Rambow*, take a self-guided walking tour of the downtown historic district, visit the Pipestone National Monument, Eat-Shop-Play...

Free showing of "Villisca: Living With a Mystery," a documentary of the 1912 ax murders in Villisca, Iowa which is to this day unsolved. Meet at the Pipestone County Museum

1:00 pm: Psychic Gallery Reading by psychic Susie Otto $50.00

Susie Otto is a psychic medium who practices private readings, group readings, house cleansings and remote viewing. Through spirit, Susie connects with your loved ones on the other side to bring you information on your past, present and future.

Meet at the Performing Arts Center.

3:30 pm: “Tales From the Grave” cemetery tour $20.00

Back by popular demand is the “Tales From the Grave” cemetery tour in which costumed actors give biographical monologues of historical figures at Old Woodlawn Cemetery.

Meet at Old Woodlawn Cemetery.

4:30 pm – 6:30 pm: On Your Own

Have your historic “ghostly” image taken, take a self-guided walking tour of the downtown historic district, visit the Pipestone National Monument, Eat-Shop-Play... or just rest up for the evenings adventures!

6:30-7:30: Wild West Ghosts with Kym O'Connell-Todd and Mark Todd

$15.00

Authors of Wild West Ghosts, an Amateur's Guide to Investigating the Paranormal, will present tips on how to conduct your own investigations, with examples from their own paranormal work in historic hotels. Books will be available for signing.

Meet at the Pipestone County Museum

8:00 pm: Ghost Hunt

$75.00

The weekend event is topped off by hunting for ghosts at three separate locations in the Pipestone Historic District. Trained guides lead the groups which will be outfitted with EMF readers, laser grid, night vision, recorder, spirit box, etc. Must be 16 years of age.

This event is limited. Meet at the Pipestone County Museum.

Overnight accommodations, Pipestone Hotel Information:

Grand Stay: 507-562-1100

America's Best Value Inn: 507-690-0091

Calumet Inn: 507-825-5871